

THE COUNTDOWN IS ON FOR THE GRAND FINALE OF THE DELANCEY UK CHESS CHALLENGE 2021

05 JULY 2021

The 26th season of the Delancey UK Schools' Chess Challenge is underway with the first stages of the event taking place online. The competition supported by its long-standing partner Delancey, will see children pitting their wits against other juniors across the UK hoping to secure a place at the prestigious Terafinal taking place at Blenheim Palace in October. This will be a difficult feat as there is only one place for each square on the chess board.

The competition has a range of prizes on offer this year including cash, trophies, medals and school prizes for the top achieving schools in the competition. As well as the main competition, there are additional events for those wishing to play fast chess, variant chess or challenge a chess master!

There are over 2,000 excited children participating this year from those new to the game, to many of England's top junior players.

Many participants have used their time effectively over lockdown to sharpen their chess skills as they strive to achieve their goals. Previous champions including Denis Dupuis, Jude Shearsby and Yichen Han will be hoping to repeat their success again this year. For those wishing to watch the event, it will be streamed on the official twitch channel - <https://www.twitch.tv/ukchesschallenge64> where children can relax between rounds, answer quiz questions, get master analysis of their games, hear from special guests and learn some extra tips to sharpen up their game.

This year we are emphasising to the players the benefit of slowing down and analysing options. The best players are able to do this consistently which helps them avoid mistakes and see possibilities others might miss. These skills are very useful at the chessboard – and away from it!

Sarah Longson CEO of the Delancey UK Schools' Chess Challenge said: "I am so excited to see the participants getting stuck in at the online megafinals and curious to see who will be one of the final 64. The final at Blenheim Palace will be the first major junior event over the board since covid-19 caused stalemate for chess events!"

Not only does this competition unite young people across the country, chess is a fantastic way for children to develop their logistical, analytical and decision-making skills. ### About Delancey UK Schools' Chess Challenge

The Delancey UK Schools' Chess Challenge has run every year since 1996 and is now considered the world's largest junior chess competition with over 1,000 schools and 40,000 children taking part every year. The ethos of the competition allows every child to enjoy playing and learning in the early stages yet testing the mettle of the finest players towards the end. The top English players from the Terafinal will be selected to represent England in an international event.

Chess is a fantastic tool for children to develop their problem solving skills, creativity and imagination, as well as the ability to plan ahead and emotional resilience. It also teaches us that hard work and perseverance pay off and to have respect for the ideas of other people. Teachers and parents comment on the enormous enthusiasm amongst the children for their badges, gold spots and mascots. Junior chess clubs are springing up all over the country, both in schools and outside; numbers in existing clubs have mushroomed. All this shows that chess is one of the most enjoyable and exciting ways for children to learn how to think critically and to plan ahead.
